

Across

2. Command that allows a permitted user to execute a command as the super-user. SUDO
8. A package management tool used in Debian-based systems for installing and managing software. APT.
9. Settings that determine who can read, write or execute a file on a system. PERMISSION
10. A secret word or string of characters used for user authentication. PASSWORD

Down

1. Set of rules that define security measures and access control within a system or organization. POLICIES
3. To make an exact copy of a file, system or repository. CLONE
4. A text based interface used to interact with the system through commands. TERMINAL
5. The system that translates human-readable domain names to IP addresses. DNS
6. A simple, text-based text editor commonly used in UNIX/Linux system. NANO
7. A collection of pre-compiled routines used in programming for code reuse. Library